

On the left, M. Viviani, the French Minister of Justice, whose eloquence stirred our Congress, spoke the other day at Noyon, France, which was so long occupied by the Germans. The large picture above shows part of his audience, formed of citizens of the town and troops of several branches of the armies of the republic. Note "Old Glory" flying over the entrance gate.

French Official from Pict. Press.

The Hun steel helmet above resembles a kitchen colander after a Canadian shell paid its compliments. A Canadian artillery officer is proudly showing the work of his battery to General Currie, head of the Maple Leaf forces overseas.

Amer. Press.

Elihu Root, head of the American Commission to Russia, photographed as he stepped off the train at Chicago, en route to Washington.

Int. Film Serv.

Preston Gibson, Washington playwright, recently subtilized his cottage at Newport and disappeared. His friends learn he is now driving an ambulance in the Norton-Hargis unit in France.

Underwood & Underwood.

Major Metcalfe, of California, in charge of the big camp at Allentown, Penn., training men for American Ambulance Corps.

Press Ill. Serv.

The gentleman on the left is H. A. Garfield, president of Williams College, who has been appointed chairman of a committee to fix the price of wheat harvested in 1917. Herbert Hoover, Food Administrator, has announced that the government is prepared to buy the entire wheat harvest to maintain this fixed "fair" price, if necessary.

Gain News Serv.

Henry Elionsky, national champion trick swimmer, shackled to a chair with seventy feet of rope, being thrown into the water at Bay Ridge. He swam from this starting point to Battery Park, spending three hours and twenty minutes in the water.

© Central News.

During a recent visit to the Western front King George V of England (centre figure) was shown all that was possible without incurring too great risk. In the background of this picture a smoke barrage is forming, while shrapnel is bursting on the right.

Underwood & Underwood.

